Carlo, the first millennial to be beatified, was noted for his joy and devotion to the Eucharist.

Outwardly he lived an ordinary life, enjoying video games, playing soccer, biking, time with his friends, and more.

Yet within that life burned a deep devotion, with daily Mass and the Rosary at its heart. Carlo’s deep love for the Blessed Sacrament led him to make Holy Hours before and after Mass. He encouraged others to receive Communion daily

Carlo died of leukemia at the age of 15
